DETAILED ACTION

1. An applicant initiated interview was held on 11/9/06, pro-se applicant was informed that the previously submitted claims were non-compliant, as claim 11, which had been objected to as being an allowable dependent claim, was presented as amended, but no strikeouts or underlining were present. The examiner accepted the amendment as a bona fide attempt to answer the previous rejections.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with William Remann on 11/9/06.

The application has been amended as follows in the claims:

claim 4, line 13 replace —operable to select— with —that selects—

claim 87, line 11 replace —operable to select— with —that selects—

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 4, 11, 87 and their dependents are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As per Claim 4.

Waytena et al ('770) does not specifically disclose computer having access to said data and said information, said computer having software that selects said second set of attractions from said first set of attractions, said second set of attractions consisting of at least some of said first set of attractions for which said data substantially matches with said information whereby said itinerary is customized for said party.

As per Claim 11.

Waytena et al ('770) further discloses the aversion attribute (age), see column 7, lines 9-31, but does not specifically disclose a nullifying preference of said party, wherein said data distinguishes a portion of said first set of attractions as being less desirable with respect to said aversion attribute unless said corresponding nullifying preference is present and wherein in step d) at least one attraction from said portion of said first set of attractions is selected for said second set of attractions.

As per Claim 87.

Waytena et al ('770) does not specifically disclose computer having access to said data and said information, said computer having software that selects said second set of attractions from said first set of attractions, said second set of attractions consisting of at least some of said first set of attractions for which said data substantially matches with said information whereby said itinerary is customized for said party.

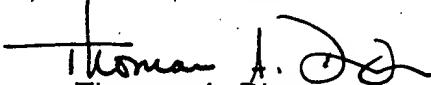

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
